

Heart Read

My heart breaks,
Breaks when all is over,
My lungs are to breath,
Breath with the feeling of air,

Couplet 1

Heart read,
The book that is read is no longer
Lines are said but they are not there
Stories were told, love tales were sold
My brain wants the know, the known old feeling lost in time
it wants the familiar lines
Breathing the air without fear

Refrain

The ink is erased
The book can't be retraced
Lost with no face
The memories you should embrace
Let the heart behold
A book with a broken soul
Locked with a key
The key lost in the sea

Couplet 2

The words are but wilted roses,
The petals fall off one by one
Each symbolic of tears by the thousand
Rain comes down in thunders of storm
Let the sun arise in the mourn
Prick your finger on a thorn
For life to be a fairytale that once was born

Refrain

The ink is erased
The book can't be retraced
Lost with no face
The memories you should embrace
Let the heart behold
A book with a broken soul
Locked with a key
The key lost in the sea
